

SCHOOL OF GLOBAL STUDIES AND PARTNERSHIPS

Graduate Programs Global Studies, MS

The Master of Science degree in Global Studies is designed to prepare students to cope with international responsibilities and address world problems that confront individuals working in the public and private sectors around the world. The curriculum is designed to educate students in the challenges and issues facing local and global communities, with an emphasis on understanding the economic, political, environmental, social, and cultural contexts that drive contemporary society. This interdisciplinary structure allows our students to draw from the best courses that Oklahoma State University has to offer, as well as to develop globalized, multi-skilled talents that will influence the world in a variety of career paths. Global Issues, GCRT

The Global Issues Graduate Certificate allows students to complement their primary area of graduate study with an international dimension. The interdisciplinary curriculum for this program provides students with a better understanding of global problems as well as world politics and culture. The certificate program better prepares graduates to apply their current graduate studies and related real-world experiences to careers in an ever-changing global environment. International Disaster and Emergency Management, GCRT

The Graduate Certificate in International Disaster and Emergency Management (IDEM) prepares students to cope with global crisis and emergency response by examining the global systems for dealing with disasters and crises that cross international borders, and the agencies and organizations that respond. The IDEM Graduate Certificate is a blend of Global Studies courses and Fire and Emergency Management Program (FEMP) courses. Students complete a set of core courses in each program, then select elective courses to focus their studies in topics ranging from emergency management, disaster management to crisis management on the global stage.
